

Workforce Development will help open doors back into the workplace for the unemployed worker and allow them to contribute positively both to the nation's economic recovery and society as a whole. We provide employment education training, and job placement opportunities for people with barriers to employment. Our goal is to improve the lives of individuals, families and communities. One of the most important components for the unemployed and the underemployed worker is helping them prepare for and obtain meaningful employment and make a positive impact within their communities.
