"One of our most important roles is being a servant leader in all aspects of our lives. This workshop will help you better understand how to bring your faith into your work place. The principles provided by Phelps can be applied in any leadership situation, because "leader" is broadly defined." - Cynthia N. Colbert, MSW

"Phelps' teachings are authentic and truly impactful in today's busy environment. As a spiritual leader in the work place, Leading Like Jesus offers key tools to all leaders for sustaining their Christianity in the work place." - Matt Johns
