

Catholic Charities serves families in need throughout the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston, with offices in three counties: Fort Bend, Galveston and Harris. We help families who are at risk of hunger or homelessness – and other stressors that make their lives difficult.

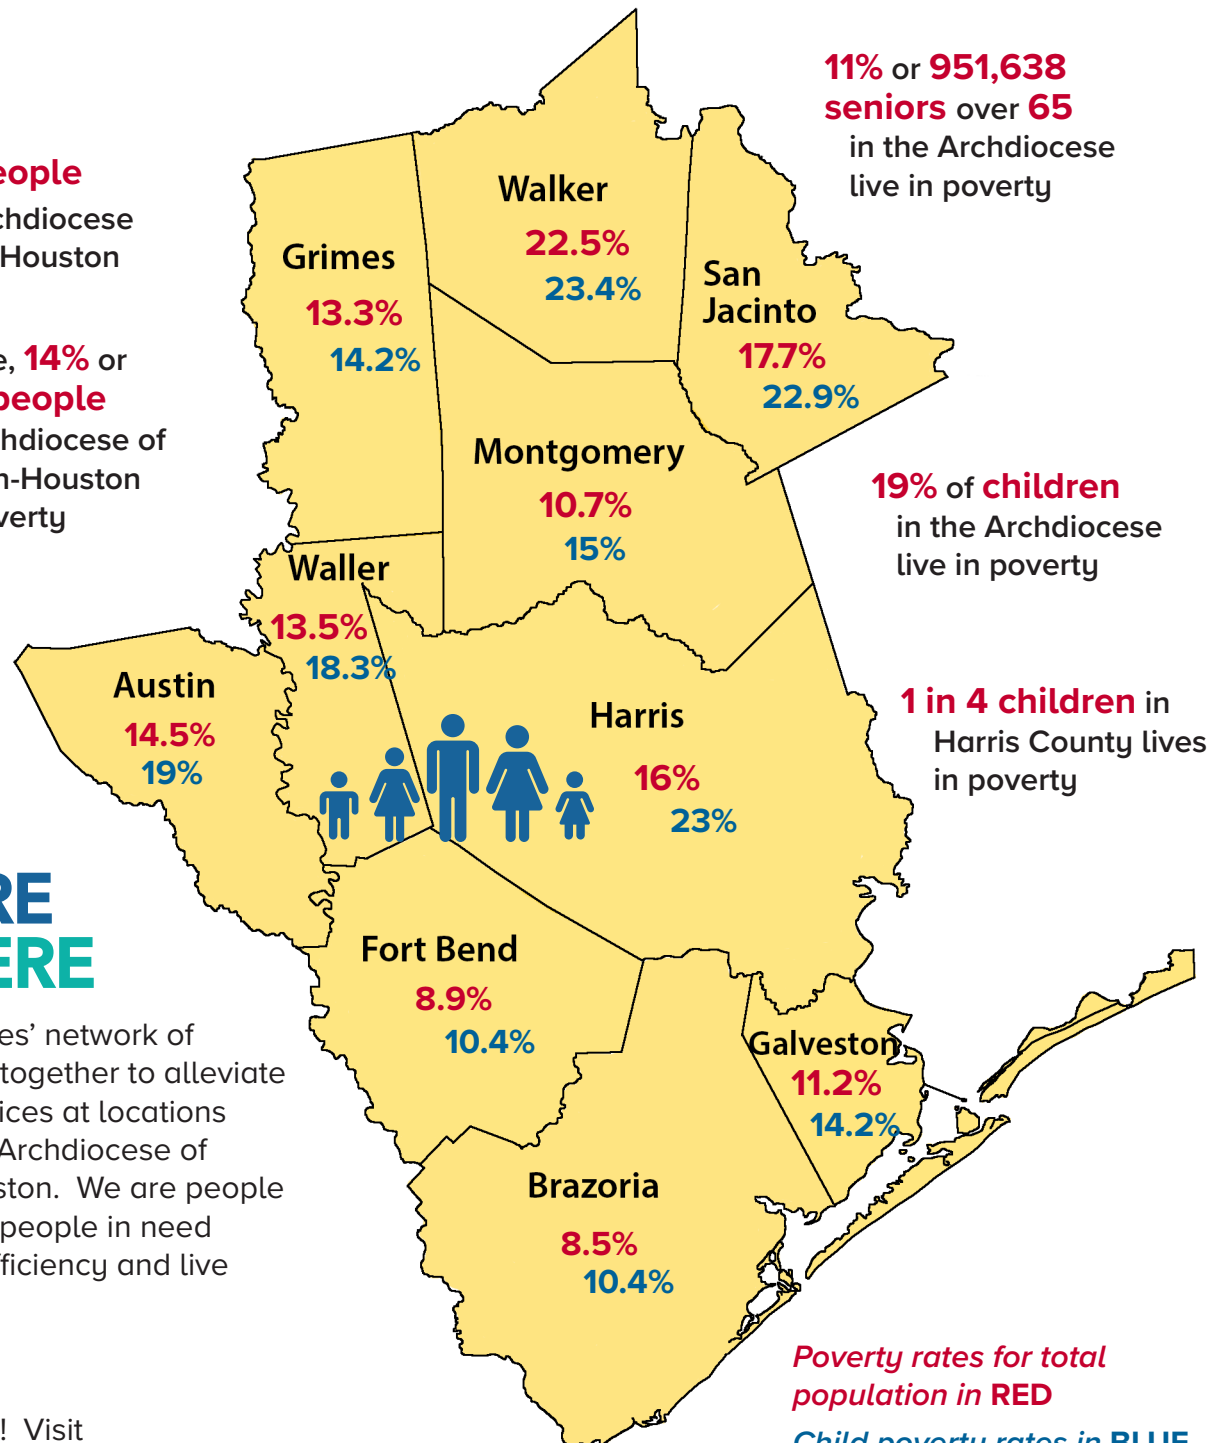

7.4 million people live in the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston

On average, 14% or 1 million people in the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston live in poverty

WE ARE THERE

Catholic Charities' network of programs work together to alleviate poverty with offices at locations throughout the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston. We are people of faith helping people in need achieve self-sufficiency and live with dignity.

Learn more! Visit CatholicCharities.org/Poverty

From 2023 U.S. Census data